

Dr.T. Sasipraba obtained her B.E and M.E., from the University of Madras and Ph.D from Sathyabama Institute of Science and Technology (Deemed to be University). She joined SATHYABAMA in 1995 as a Lecturer and her 19 years of meritorious career has promoted her as a Dean in the year 2010. During the course of her career at SATHYABAMA. Dr. T. Sasipraba has made exceptional contributions in the areas of research and developments, international linkages and Publications. For her outstanding contributions over the years, Dr. Sasipraba has received numerous awards from SATHYABAMA and from Cognizant Technology Solutions. She has published more than 75 papers in refereed international journals and conference proceedings and has guided many Ph.D Scholars in the field of Computer Science and Engineering. She is a fellow of various scientific societies. Best Teacher Award for the year 2007-2008 and 2008-2009. Best Faculty Award awarded by Cognizant Technology solutions for the year 2007-2008 for her outstanding performance. SATHYABAMA's most valuable Faculty Award for the year 2009 for the dedication in duty and commitment are some of the laurels and credentials to be mentioned. She has acquired several projects funded by the agencies like Department of Science & Technology, Defense Research & Development Organization (DRDO) etc. Location Based services for Emergency Management, GIS based Web services for emergency management, Detection of Harmful Radiations in the Environment by Deploying Wireless Sensor Network, Location Based Services for Everyday essentials are some of her promising projects with high scope for societal applications.